

Course Providers Database

List of all TC-accredited course providers

The fact that the name and address of a person or an organization is published on this site only means that Transport Canada has accredited the boating safety course or test that has been presented to Transport Canada as provided for in the Competency of Operators of Pleasure Craft Regulations.

Transport Canada does not assume any other responsibility for these persons or organizations. In particular, Transport Canada does not guarantee the quality of the services that are offered and does not assume any responsibility for the property or the copyright on the courses and tests.

The course providers are listed in alphabetical order.
