Annex 1 - Privacy Notice Statement

Before you provide us with your personal information, please take a few moments to review the following privacy statement.

The Impact Assessment Agency of Canada, herein referred to as the Agency, is coordinating a selection process for an advisory committee to the follow-up program for the Regional Assessment of offshore exploratory drilling east of Newfoundland and Labrador. For the purposes of this selection process, the Agency will collect the personal information provided by you.

“Personal information” is any information, in any form, about an identifiable individual; including details of an individual’s personal experiences, or views or opinions about that individual. Please refer to section 3 of the Privacy Act for further details regarding personal information.

The Agency is committed to protecting the privacy rights of individuals and safeguarding the personal information under its control in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act.

Should you decide to apply for a position on the Committee, it is important to know that your submission constitutes your consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the information provided therein in accordance with the Privacy Act.

Your personal information will be used to assess your competencies as required by the position’s merit criteria. The Selection Committee will be provided with all information related to the candidate for review. The Selection Committee will then assess the candidates identified and recommend finalists to be considered by the Agency, Natural Resources Canada and the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador’s Department of Industry Energy and Trade. Note that we will not use the information you submit for any other purpose without first obtaining your explicit consent or unless in accordance with the Privacy Act.

You have the right to request access to your information and to request corrections where you believe there is an error or omission. You may contact IAAC’s Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) team at atip-aiprp@iaac-aeic.gc.ca to exercise these rights.

You also have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada at any time regarding the Agency’s handling of your personal information.

Personal information will be retained for 2 years after the appointment process is completed. Personal information may be retained for a longer period, if required under the Privacy Act or the Library and Archives of Canada Act. For instance, personal information will be retained for an additional 2 years following any use for an administrative purpose or an access to personal information request. Where a request for access to the information has been received, the personal information may be retained until such time as the individual has had the opportunity to exercise all his rights under the Privacy Act.

Personal information will be protected under the provisions of the Privacy Act and is described in the Treasury Board Secretariat's (TBS) standard personal information bank, Members of Boards, Committees and Councils (PSU 919) detailed in Info Source.

By providing your personal information, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this statement and consent to the Agency's collection, use and disclosure of your personal information.
