

Updated July 7, 2020

Summary of Information Available to the Impact Assessment Agency of Canada (the Agency) about:

- a) The nature and extent of Long Lake 58 First Nation's Aboriginal and Treaty rights;
- b) The potential impacts of the Project to the exercise of Long Lake 58 First Nation's rights; and
- c) Other potential impacts of the Project on health, social, or economic conditions of Long Lake 58 First Nation.

a) Summary of the information available to the Agency related to the nature and extent of Long Lake 58 First Nation's Aboriginal and Treaty rights

- Members of Long Lake 58 First Nation have rights that are recognized and affirmed under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.
- ~~Long Lake 58 First Nation is a signatory to Treaty 9, which provides rights to hunting, trapping and fishing throughout the treaty area.~~
- Long Lake 58 First Nation's reserve (Long Lake No. 58) is about 350 kilometres south from the Project.
- Long Lake 58 First Nation is part of the Matawa First Nations, the Chiefs of Ontario, the Union of Ontario Indians, and the Nishnawbe Aski Nation.
- Long Lake 58 First Nation's Land Code came into force April 1, 2017 under the First Nations Land Management Act, Schedule 2.

b) Summary of the information available to the Agency on the potential impacts to the exercise of Long Lake 58 First Nation's rights resulting from any change to the environment due to the Project are identified below

Potential impacts to physical and cultural heritage

- No information currently available.

Potential impacts to the current use of lands and resources for traditional purposes

- Potential changes to access, experience or abundance of lands and resources used for fishing, hunting and trapping (specifically moose).

Potential impacts to any structure, site, or thing that is of historical, archeological, paleontological, or architectural significance

- No information currently available.

c) Summary of the information available to the Agency on any changes to the health, social, or economic conditions of Long Lake 58 First Nation due to the Project

- Potential changes to physical and/or mental health.
- Potential changes to social conditions or well-being.

If you have additional information about the potential impacts of the Project on Long Lake 58 First Nation or on the exercise of rights of Long Lake 58 First Nation, please provide this information to the Agency.