Re: Impact Assessment for the Crawford Nickel Mine Project

Dear Erin,

Thank you for contacting Timiskaming First Nation regarding the Crawford Nickel Project. We understand that you may be contacting Timiskaming First Nation with regards to this Project or activity due to potential requirements to fulfill the legal duty to consult when activities may have the potential to impact our established and asserted rights under Section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982, or for reasons of good governance or best practices.

At this time, Timiskaming First Nation believes the Project or activity is located outside of our Aboriginal title and Traditional Territory. We note the Project or activity is likely located within the territories of neighbouring First Nations and we encourage you to contact those Nations.

Timiskaming First Nation however, would request periodic updates regarding this Project or activity at critical milestones for our awareness and records. Please send all updates to Lindsay McLaren Polson, Sustainable Development Manager.

Thank you,
